Our Father in heaven, hallowed be – and holy is -- Your name. Let it be that this moment, this hour, this day – we really bless, worship, and praise You. Help us to praise You for all Your works and for all that shines forth from them: Your almighty power, wisdom, kindness, justice, mercy and truth. Help us to direct all our living – what we think, say, and do – so that Your name will always be honored and praised. Your character, Your name, Your actions – all are full of worth. We turn our adoration to Your worthiness, and we bless You for providing us our daily needs. In all that You are, in all that You do, You are good. Sermon Notes

Weorthscipe {ascribed worth!} ~ Revelation 4+5

“There are always two parts to true worship. There is seeing God and there is savoring God. You can’t separate these. You must see Him to savor Him. And if you don’t savor Him when you see Him, you insult Him. In true worship, there is always understanding with the mind and there is always feeling in the heart. Understanding must always be the foundation of feeling, or all we have is baseless emotionalism. But understanding of God that doesn’t give rise to feeling for God becomes mere intellectualism and deadness. This is why the Bible continually calls us to think and consider and meditate, on the one hand, and to rejoice and fear and mourn and delight and hope and be glad, on the other hand. Both are essential for worship.” {John Piper}

1. Introduction; and then some thoughts on worship {confused with music? Style? Preferences? Or prostrating oneself in spirit before the One to whom all worthiness should be ascribed....
